Life Reflections

I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.
II Timothy 4:7

MS. LILLIAN HEYWARD, the daughter of the late Alonza Heyward and the late Maggie Young Heyward, was born March 23, 1932 on Yonges Island, South Carolina.

She received her education in the Charleston County Schools.

She was a member of New Cannon Street Baptist Church where she served on the Senior Choir Board.

Lillian was a member of the Heyward Sister's Gospel Group.

She was blessed with two children, Mr. Herman L. Heyward and Ms. Janie M. Heyward, both of Charleston, SC. She was preceded in death by twelve siblings.

On Saturday, July 24, 2010, her Heavenly Father called and she boarded that Heavenly Train.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: her son, Mr. Herman L. Heyward; and daughter Ms. Janie M. Heyward both of Charleston, SC; two sisters, Mrs. Katie L. Blunt of Charleston, SC, and Rev. Ida M. Harrison of Charleston, SC; one brother, Mr. Alonzo Heyward, Jr., of Hollywood, SC; and a host of special nieces and nephews, other family and friends.

Miss Me

When I come to the end of the day, And the sun has set for me;
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long, And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love we once shared- Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take, And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan, A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, Go to the friends we know;
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds-
Miss me but let me go.
