

Loving Memories

In God's Sight

*A new life awaits you,
 On this new found journey to Heaven.
 It was love that called you home,
 He awaits you with open arms.
 Though your time on earth has past,
 Some may mourn, but to you at last;
 There's no place like home,
 Like Heaven to call your own.
 Cause in God's sight you're forever kept warm.
 Love Always,
 Your Grandson, Vincent Matthews*

The Obituary

SADIE VICTORIA MATTHEWS was born on November 3, 1931 in Charleston, South Carolina. She is the daughter of Mr. Joseph and Julie Green Heyward.

Sadie was joined in holy matrimony to Joseph Matthews, Jr., on October 7, 1950 and to this union nine children were born.

She attended Charleston County Schools. Sadie was a member of St. Paul Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ where she worshipped faithfully until her health failed.

She was loved and cherished by all who knew her. She brightened our lives and we thank Almighty God for such a blessed opportunity to have her in our presence.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her beloved husband, the late Mr. Joseph Matthews, Jr. She is the mother of nine children, Margarett Simmons (Jerry), Rose Grampus (Clarence), Louise Castro (Daniel), Samuel Matthews (Melvenia), Rev. George Heyward (Constance), Henry Matthews, Herbert Lee Matthews (Lavern), the late Joseph Matthews, III, and John Matthew; mother-in-law of Mariah Matthews; grandmother of twenty-eight grandchildren, forty six great-grandchildren, five great-great-grandchildren; four sisters, Frances Duffy (Melvin), Louise Smith (Caleb), two preceded her in death, Marion Smith and Lottie Moore; one brother, Lemon Heyward; three step-sisters, Sarah Mungin, Julian White and Vera Mitchell; one step-brother, William Smith; one sister-in-law, Ruth Robinson (Minister John), one brother-in-law, Herbert Lee Matthews of Florida; she was an aunt to many nieces and nephews, she also leaves other relatives and many special friends.

To Grandma With Love

*Tell Him to come soon,
Don't make her wait, come soon.
The sun has dawned like melting fire,
Life like fire, had it's own desires.
It brought her under, or at least it tried,
Down under it's wrath and into the night.
But He brought down His hand & smote the fire.
And saved her forever from the lake of fire,
And told it to leave, but stood firmly by.
"I am thine Father, and this be my child."
And He took her hand so they would float.
"Steadily now, and here we go!"
And they broke through the heavens,
And then out of sight;
"This be my child, And I am her light!"
Lawrence Matthews, Grandson*
