Reflections of Life

To everything there is a season. Ecclesiastes 3:1

A TIME TO BE BORN...

WILLIAM ST. JULIAN BROWN was born on June 3, 1922 in Charleston, South Carolina. He Was the son of the late John Brown and Rosa Lee Kelly. He was the brother of Mrs. Thelma V. Gause, Mrs. Ella Nora Aiken, the late St. Jonathan Brown, Ferdinand Brown, Lottie Brown, Leroy Brown, Elbert Brown and Albert Brown.

A TIME TO PLANT...

He received his education in the public schools of Charleston. He was educated at Simonton School and Burke Industrial School. He was a United States Army Veteran, receiving an Honorable Discharge after four years of service.

A TIME TO LEAVE...

On January 3, 1944, he was joined in holy matrimony to the former Ethel Finley of Charleston, SC. To this union, two children were born, the late Shirley Ann Richardson and Terry Lynn Brown-Murphy.

A TIME TO EMBRACE AND A TIME TO REFRAIN...

William began his tenure of employment first, as a baker for NBC Baker. He worked in this position for several years. He later worked at the Air Force Base where he retired after completing thirty years of service.

A TIME FOR EVERY PURPOSE UNDER THE HEAVEN...

William joined Calvary Baptist Church at an early age under the leadership of the late Rev. Kinard. He has served in the following capacities; a member of the Trustee Board, a Deacon, Chairman of the Brotherhood (Sr./Jr.), Chairman of the Deacon Board, Deacon Emeritus, a member of the Senior Choir, and Boy Scout Leader.

A TIME TO DIE...

William fought the good fight. He finished his course. He kept the faith. On March 4, 2010 at 6:40 A.M., he did the “great exchange” departing this life at his home. On this day, he exchanged his weariness for God’s strength; his weaknesses for God’s power; his darkness for God’s Light; his problems for God’s solutions; his burdens for God’s freedom; his frustrations for God’s peace; his afflictions for God’s balm of comfort; his questions for God’s answers; and the temporal for Life Eternal.

A TIME TO MOURN...

He leaves to mourn his memories: his devoted wife, Mrs. Ethel F. Brown; his daughter, Terry B. Murphy (Jasper); grandchildren, Valentino Scott, William L. Brown (Christina), Shana Richardson, and Frank Odom, Jr.; twelve great-grandchildren, two sisters, Thelma V. Gause, and Ella Nora Aiken; four nieces, Lorraine Monts, Joyce Thurman (James), Maria Felder (George), and Barbara Jean Whitney; three nephews, William V. Brown, Leroy A. Brown, and William L. Smalls; three adopted sons, Melvin Jamison (Lee), Charles Green (Inez), and Alonzo Toomer (Cical); and a host of grand nieces, grand nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Loving Memories

Your gentle face and patient smile,
With sadness we recall;
You had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved of all.
The voice is mute and stilled the heart,
That loved us well and true;
Ah, bitter was the trial to part,
From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten loved one,
Nor will you ever be;
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we miss you more;
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one call fill your vacant place.
