

Those Who Loved Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
But be thankful for our beautiful years.

I gave you my life, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I travel alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.

And if you listen with your ear, you'll hear,
All my love around, soft and clear.
And when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home"

Absent from the body;
Present with the Lord.

Obituary

Mrs. Frances Brown Perry, daughter of Lucille M. Heyward and John Brown was born in Charleston, South Carolina on September 9, 1926. She entered into eternal rest Sunday, November 21, 2010 at Oakbrook Health and Rehabilitation Center, Summerville, South Carolina while peacefully sleeping.

Mrs. Perry was educated in Charleston County School system. In later years she received her Nursing Assistant license. However, most of her employment was done at Fox Music House on King Street, Charleston, South Carolina. She developed friendships with many people while carrying out her duties for her employer, Mr. Fox.

Mrs. Perry committed her life to the Lord at an early age. She became a faithful member of Morris Street Baptist Church where she served on the Missionary Board. It is known to all who knew her how her faith in the Lord helped her through a history of serious physical illness until her passing.

Mrs. Perry was the wife of the late Joseph R. Perry, Jr. and the mother of Joseph R. Perry, III (Sweet P), Ronald B. Perry and the mother-in-law of Pat. They all preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: three children, Joanne E. Perry (Avis Canty-Goddaughter), Greenville, South Carolina, Zandra B. Stitt (Steve Stitt) of New York and Tyrone Martin Perry of Charleston, South Carolina; grandchildren, Sonya Fludd, Keera (Silky) Frye, Shani Stitt, Ronald (Greenhead) and Shawn Pyatt (Stacey); and a host of other close relatives and devoted friends who loved her dearly, too many to name.

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms
Around you and whispered,
"Come With Me."
In tears we saw you sinking
And watched you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
When we saw you sleeping so peacefully
And free from pain,
We could not wish you back,
To suffer so again.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*
