The Obituary

Clyde Stanley Myles (Stan) was born August 25, 1958, to the late Frank Myles and Beatrice Jones in Charleston, South Carolina. Clyde passed away peacefully on September 9, 2010 at the young age of 52..

Clyde was born and raised in Charleston, South Carolina and graduated from Charles A. Brown High School, Class of 1976.

He was one of four children born to the late Beatrice Jones.

Left to mourn his passing but cherish his memory are: his children, Makondi (Stanyond), Taquay (Quay), and Assadi (Sadi) Myles, all of Atlanta, Georgia; his granddaughter Sinomi Sackaly; brothers, Harvey Jones Sr. (Teri) of Huger, SC, Charles Myles that preceded him in death; sister, Jeanette Clark (Lavelle) of Charleston, SC; nephews, Harvey Jones Jr., Badi Jones (Amanda), Justin Myles, Charles (Bootsie) Myles, Kurvelle Clark (April), Jeremy Clark, Le'Sedrick Brown, Erick Brown (Cynthia), Michael Brown Jr.; niece, Shana Brown. Along with countless other family and friends whom were blessed to know him.

Clyde loved listening to jazz music, playing chess, cooking, laughing, being with his family and friends.

Clyde touched the lives of many people with his smile and generosity, and maintained his trademark gift of listening and words of encouragement even throughout his bad days.

*Clyde, sleep on in God's glory my son
The enemy thought he had you, but God won.
You went through the Pearly Gates in peace,
Knowing that your trials and troubles would cease.
Only you and your Sovereign God knew what you went through
But God in his infinite wisdom knew what to do.
As the angels of God prepared for your adorning
He whispered your name and called you home Thursday morning.
We love and miss you Clyde, so sleep on we say
As we press to see you again in Heaven that Great Day.*
