Obituary

On Thursday, August 26, 2010 the Lord called Stanley Pierce home.

Stanley Pierce was born in Manhattan, New York on May 3, 1965 to the late Wilhelmina White Pierce and the late William Lewis Pierce. He moved to Charleston, South Carolina at an early age and was educated in the public schools of Charleston.

Stanley was a very talented artist and craftsman. He worked in many restaurants as a prep person and later a chef. Stanley had a love for children.

He leaves to cherish his fond memories his sisters and brothers, Larcena White (Dennis), Tyrone Pierce, Sr. (Jeannette), Charles Pierce (Karen), Darlene White, Stacy White, Sr. (Erica), Victoria White; three special aunts Pauline Hills, Ruth Patten and Flora C. Bell, two uncles Willie White and Robert White, twelve nieces and seven nephews. Two grand nieces and one grand nephew, special friends Jerry Thomas (JT), Marvin Mack and a host of other relatives and friends.

A Note From Heaven

If I could write from Heaven,
this is what I'd say,
Please don't miss me too much,
I'm with you throughout your day,
You may not see or hear me,
But if you're quiet and still,
You may just feel my presence;
Because in Heaven, there is free will,
Don't worry for the day,
It will come and go as planned,
Enjoy each moment you are given,
Keep sorrow to a minimum;
For if Heaven you could see,
You'd know I'm safe and happy,
I did not cease to be.
Moments in time are brief,
Until we'll be together again,
As Eternity lasts forever,
Our lives, they have no end.
