The Obituary

Sister Ruby Mae Dayson Green was born on March 26, 1923 to the late Oscar Dayson and Mary Martin Dayson of Johns Island, S.C. Ruby Green entered into her eternal resting place on the glorious morning of November 25, 2010. She received her early educational training at Avery Institute and attended Claflin University in Orangeburg, S.C. On February 28, 1951 Sister Ruby Green married Deacon George Green. Their union spanned over 59 years.

As a young woman, Ruby accepted our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ as her personal savior in 1949 at Lovely Hill Missionary Baptist Church. She joined Lovely Hill Missionary Baptist Church under the ministry of the late Rev. William Grant. Ruby was a loyal member of Lovely Hill Missionary Baptist Church where she rendered her services unselfishly, in many positions.

She served in the capacity as a Sunday School Teacher, she established the Summer Vacation Bible School Program, a member of the Pulpit Aid Board, the Youth Department, President of the Missionary Society, Senior Deaconess, and the Senior Choir president. She was an active member of the Daughters of St. Andrews Chapter #283 Order of the Eastern Stars, and one of the mother advisors of the Mary B. Thomas Youth Department. She was also a member of the Sanders Community Beautification, and Red Top Improvement Association. She was recently named one of the mothers of Lovely Hill Missionary Baptist Church. Ruby retired after more than 30 years of dedicated service to Charleston County School District in Charleston, South Carolina where she worked Food Service. During her employment she received many awards and recognitions.

Sister Ruby Green leaves to cherish her memories, her children, George Green (Miwa) of Charleston, SC, Mary Smith Capers (Lester) of Awendaw, SC, Donald Green (Jeanetta) of Woodbridge, VA, and Cathy "Bunny" Green formally of Washington, DC, now of the home; Seven grandchildren, Symon Smith (Heidi) of Ladson, SC; Simone Smith (Rodney Simmons) of Charleston, SC; Angelica and Serita Stepter of Richmond, VA; Dorian, Sabrina and Alexander Green, all of Charleston, SC; seven nieces, Barbara Johnson (Robert), Andrea Stephens, (Willie), Barbara Brown, Karon Anderson, Sharon Johnson(Kevin), Valerie Dayson, and Carolyn Page; three nephews; Raleigh Gatison, Eric Dayson, and Michael B. Crawford, Sr.; two sisters, Maude Fraiser (late Isaiah Fraiser), and Addie Crawford (late Rev. Benjamin Crawford); one brother, Oscar E. Dayson Jr. (late Audrey Dayson); three God children, Ronald Heyward, Alvin Heyward and Jacqueline Deas Washington; a host of grand nieces and nephews, great grand nieces and nephews, a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her devoted husband, Deacon George Green and her two sisters, Mary Dayson and Anna Gatison, and one brother Robert Dayson.

I Will Rest Now

I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside

Into the shadow where we could confide.

Away from the bustle, where all day long,

I hurried and worried when at first I rebelled

But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld

And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things.

Though' weakened in body, my spirit took wings

To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.

He loved me so gently, He drew me away.

I needed the quiet, no prison my bed

But a beautiful valley of blessings instead.

A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.

I needed the quiet so He drew me aside
